Dear Frank:

On the occasion of your retirement after 38 years with the Central Intelligence Agency, I want to personally express my appreciation for your loyal and dedicated service. You have established a reputation as a man of imperturbability and even temper who could always be counted on to do a conscientious job and take on extra duties without complaint or fuss. Your fellow workers will remember you warmly as a dependable colleague and good friend whose sense of humor contributed to a cordial office environment.

Let me take this opportunity to wish you and Ida every happiness in your well-earned retirement. I can assure you that you will be missed by all of us here in FBIS.

Sincerely,

[Redacted Signature]

R. W. Manners
Director
